EVENING OF MUSIC

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH CHOIR RENDERS PLEASING PROGRAM

An exceptionally high grade musical evening was enjoyed by a large crowd at Central Christian church last night. This was the first of a regular monthly service of music to be given throughout the year. The choir of the church is being directed by Mrs. Calvin Whiting who is well known in Glendale as being a superior leader and directress. There are twenty members in the choir.

Three difficult anthems, two of which carried obligato parts, were as well sung as one often hears in church choirs. Mesdames C. C. Stoller and Floyd Mercer sang the soprano obligatos. Both are newcomers in church and musical circles of our city. Mr. Harry Marple sang the bass obligato to "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us." The other anthems were "Behold I Bring You Good News," and "The Lord of Life," "Hold Thou My Hand, Dear Lord," by Briggs, was sung by Mr. Marple.

The sermons of the day were heard by large crowds, the morning audience crowding the church. Rev. C. A. Cole spoke in the morning on "Modern Forms of Hypocrisy" and at night gave a short sermon on "The Light of the World." Over twenty persons have united with the church in the last two months.

GREWSOME PICTURES

Mrs. W. C. Bradley of 523 Oak St., received last Saturday from her son Frank, who is in Tela, Honduras, a number of kodak pictures taken after the recent revolution which deposed the president of that distracted country. Some of the pictures showed piles of dead bodies of soldiers awaiting cremation and others scenes of devastation in the various towns.

MR. COOPER IMPROVING PROPERTY

C. C. Cooper, the newly elected president of the First National Bank, who recently bought of Mr. Dudley the fine residence property at the northeast corner of Central and California avenues, has been adding some substantial improvements to the place, among them a complete sprinkler system for lawn and parkways. Mr. Cooper has not forgotten his early training in the "School of the Best Licks," as was evidenced by the fact that he was frequently seen on the job, in old clothes and shirt sleeves, making a full hand at the work.

FRIENDS OF LONG AGO MEET

Mr. and Mrs. Orton Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Pierson of Redondo came over Saturday to stay over Sunday with Mrs. Wm. Kelly of 350 West Elk Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Theobald of 312 West Acacia Avenue. The four ladies were schoolgirls together back in Hartford, Ind. The two living in Glendale had not heard of the others since they were girls and only learned a few days ago that they, too, had come to California to live.

OTHER CHILDREN

ILLUSTRATED TALK BY MISS FIELD AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

At the Glendale Presbyterian Church Sunday night a novelty was provided in a stereopticon presentation of the children of many lands with running comments on the 76 pictures by Miss Bessie Field. The aim of the illustrated talk was to interest children in the young people of other countries and in missionary work in their behalf. In introducing Miss Field, the pastor referred to the mortality among the Armenian children and declared that history had repeated itself in the slaughter of the innocents. Said he: "We can not begin too young with children and we must learn to feel more responsibility for touching the lives of children."

The series opened with one of the beautiful Madonna pictures with which all were familiar, and one of Raphael's pictures of the Holy Family. Following these were modern pictures—tinted photographs—showing Armenian orphans who had been rescued from starvation, children in Central America, Esquimaux babies and children in Iceland, the snow houses in which they live with views of both the interior and exterior.

FREEMAN BREWSTER

GOVERNMENT OFFERS FREE SCHOOLING TO EX-SERVICE MAN AND $80 PER MONTH

Mr. Brewster reports that his son, Freeman, who was wounded while with the A. E. F. in France, as a compensation for his disabilities was notified by the government he could have free tuition in any school he cared to attend in addition to pay as an undischarged soldier. In acceptance of the offer he has gone to the Butler School of Commerce in San Francisco where he will endeavor to fit himself to become a certified accountant. In the meantime he will be receiving $80 per month from the government. To do this work he has given up the position in Los Angeles to which he came back with his old firm, Klauber Wagenheimer & Co., dealers in fancy groceries, who have since his return promoted him to the position of credit man.

IOWANS NOW LOCATED IN GLENDALE

David E. Reed, wife and daughter, lifelong residents of Decorah, Ia., came to California three months ago, stopping in Riverside. Not satisfied there they tried Santa Ana, Orange and Long Beach, but could not find a home to suit them. They finally decided to try Glendale, as Mr. Reed has a cousin, Mr. Adams, the Chautauqua lecturer, and an uncle, R. D. Topliff, living here. On his arrival he began looking for a place to live and soon found he would have to buy, as there were none to rent. He finally decided on El Nido at 330 West Eulalia Street, and bought it, furniture and all. He and his family are very much pleased with Glendale and enjoy the many wonderful scenic drives they find in this vicinity. Mr. Reed's brother, E. T. Reed, came to Glendale with him, but left a few days ago for Honolulu to visit his only son there.

P. T. A. MOTHERS

Early in the present season at a meeting of the Broadway P. T. A. a mother for each room was appointed. This "mother" is not to be on duty at the school but is expected to promote acquaintance and co-operation among the mothers of pupils in that room. That the work might be properly organized and started, Mrs. W. A. Kulp, president of that Parent-Teacher Association, last Tuesday entertained the "mothers" of the various rooms at her home, where plans for meeting their responsibilities were freely discussed. Each "mother" will make a point of entertaining the mothers of pupils in the room for which she is responsible, and it is believed much unity of effort will result. The new school building will make Broadway a bigger and finer institution and the Parent-Teacher Association wants to be prepared to help in a big way.

D. D. HAINES BUYS HOME

D. D. Haines, who has been living in the front house on his son's property at 212 W. Lomita avenue since he and his wife came to Glendale from Ohio last summer, has bought the V. E. Skiles place at 323 W. Wilson avenue, a 5-room house completely furnished, and will move in the latter part of the month. The son, Walter, will then move into the front house with his wife and son Wallace, and the rear house will be occupied by Melvin Miller and wife, who are coming here from Denver, Colorado. Mr. Miller will act as sales agent for the Haines, father and son, whose business is the taking and mounting of panoramic views of scenery, buildings, etc. They chose Glendale as a location because it was in the very heart of some of the grandest scenery on earth, and thus material for their work could be found close at hand.

ESTERLYS TO RETURN

Miss Helen Esterly of Los Angeles spent the week-end with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Esterly of this city. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Esterly, have purchased a house and two lots on Cherry Street, which is in the west end of Glendale, between Harvard and Colorado, and have also bought a lot on West Broadway. They expect to take possession of the Cherry Street house in February and when building conditions are more favorable will improve their Broadway property for a permanent home. They have decided that Glendale is more to their liking than Los Angeles, and their many friends here will be delighted to welcome them. Their son, William Esterly, goes this week to the hospital at Camp Fremont, in the Bay City, for special treatment.

THE PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

GOVERNMENT MOVES TO DISMISS THE SUIT OF RHODE ISLAND ATTACKING ITS VALIDITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The government moved today to dismiss the suit of the State of Rhode Island in the Supreme Court attacking the validity of constitutional prohibition. The argument on the motion is expected to bring a decision which will show whether the amendment will stand. It is stated that the motion cannot be argued until March because the attorneys for Rhode Island are not ready. This means there can be no decision before April.

POWHATAN AGAIN IN TOW

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—A radiogram to the army transport service today said the army tug Release had reached the side of the transport Powhatan which has been adrift since the tow line parted Saturday. The latest advices said the Powhatan had been taking in water and that two of the fire rooms were flooded but the weather is moderating and there is believed to be little danger. If the situation should grow more serious, the crew can be taken off.

COUNCIL OF EMBASSADORS

DECIDES TO CONTINUE EFFORT TO SECURE SURRENDER OF KAISER FOR TRIAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, Jan. 26.—The Council of Ambassadors which succeeded the Supreme Council of the peace conference has decided to continue the effort to induce Holland to give up the former Kaiser for trial. The Council has instructed the French government to prepare a reply to the Dutch note of refusal, taking up Holland's argument point by point.

At the meeting this morning the Council also decided that, pending American ratification of the peace treaty, French representatives shall supplant Americans as heads of various commissions overseeing plebiscites. The Council received an appeal from Poland for aid against the Bolsheviks.

LENINE INTERPRETED

SELF-STYLED BOLSHEVIK AMBASSADOR SAYS LENINE HAS ABANDONED IDEA OF WORLD REVOLUTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled "Bolshevik Ambassador," testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations sub-committee, declared that Lenine of Russia has abandoned his idea of world revolution. He declared the Russians once believed it would be necessary to bring about world-wide revolution but that idea is disappearing now because Russia has demonstrated that it can exist against the rest of the world.

"Russia is strong enough now to defy any government," he declared. "That is the reason Lenine wrote to the Italian socialists advising them against revolution. He believes this is a period of reconstruction."

FREE HAND GIVEN LORD FRENCH

BRITISH GOVERNMENT DETERMINED TO SUPPRESS DIS- ORDERS IN IRELAND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, Jan. 26.—It was learned here today that the government has decided to give Lord French a free hand to suppress disorders in Ireland. It was stated the government was ready to declare martial law as a last resort if necessary to stop the almost daily outbreaks of violence.

Rewards totalling approximately $700,000 have been offered for the arrest and conviction of persons who murdered the fourteen policemen since last July.

I. W. W. TRIAL OPENS

MEN ACCUSED OF MURDERS AT CENTRALIA ON ARMIS- TICE DAY SEEK CHANGE OF VENUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MONTESANO, Wash., Jan. 26.—The trial of the eleven I. W. W.s charged with the murder of members of the American Legion on Armistice Day at Centralia, opened today with a fight for a change of venue. Attorney George F. Vanderveer, for the defense, attempted to introduce newspaper articles published in Gray's Harbor as the basis for a claim that the defendants could not secure a fair trial here. The court refused to consider the articles and then refused to grant a change of venue.

IRISH PATRIOTS

MRS. DANIEL CAMPBELL AND FAMILY HEAR HON. WM. COOTE IN LOS ANGELES

Mrs. Daniel Campbell, her father, Mr. McPeak, and other members of her family attended the morning service at the First Presbyterian church of Los Angeles Sunday forenoon for the special purpose of hearing Hon. William Coote, who occupied the pulpit and who represents County Tyrone, Ireland, in the British Parliament. He is here with a party of other distinguished Irishmen from Ulster to explain to Irish-Americans and others interested, present conditions in the Emerald Isle. As he and other members of his party are to speak again tonight at the Bible Institute she will again attend and is urging all who have been appealing to her for an explanation of the Irish situation to hear these men who, she declares, are thoroughly honest, disinterested and patriotic. Hon. Mr. Coote is from the province Mrs. Campbell came from and in which her father lived for a much longer period. He is a man who knows what he is talking about, she says, and who is making his explanations in a straightforward way. He is a man of the people, however, and the owner of large woolen mills.

A MERITED HONOR

AMERICAN LEGION POST HAS PART IN PERSHING PARADE

A gaily decorated auto with uniformed officers and privates as passengers was rushing about the streets of Glendale this a. m. getting ready for the great parade in honor of General Pershing in Los Angeles, which started at noon. Only three of the many American Legion posts in Los Angeles and vicinity were honored with positions in the parade and Glendale Post was one of these, their auto being No. 29. The occupants were Captain D. W. Nicles, chairman of the Post; Lieutenant R. C. Plume, first vice chairman; members of the executive committee, McCloud, W. B. Kelly, R. D. White and Dwight W. Stephenson. Lieutenant Plume was a member of the reception committee that met General Pershing at the train. Mr. McCloud furnished his Hudson car to convey the party to the city and in the parade. Olin Spencer of West Broadway, who was a boyhood friend of General Pershing, was another of Glendale's residents who witnessed the great parade.

GOPHER CONTROL

CITY FORESTER MAREK TELLS HOW STREET TREES OF GLENDALE ARE MENACED

City Forester Marek declares that one of the most serious hindrances to the securing of tree-lined avenues in Glendale is the presence of great numbers of pocket gophers infesting the soil. Great trees sometimes a foot in diameter and forty feet high have been killed within the last three years, he says, and unless heavy rains come to reduce the numbers of gophers, their toll will be great before grass grows again in the fall. He is urging Glendale citizens to attend a gopher control demonstration to be held under the joint auspices of the Farm Bureau and the Horticultural Commission which will be conducted by F. E. Garlough of the Bureau of Biological Survey, Department of Agriculture, Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at the residence of H. S. Sprinkle, Magnolia Avenue, one mile west of Burbank. This is an opportunity and an invitation which he insists no property owner should miss.

VON OVENS MAKING CHANGE

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Von Oven who recently sold their property at 431 West Vine Street are now looking for a new location for a home. The purchaser of their Vine Street property is Mrs. Harper, whose son is connected with the Packer & White Auto Agency. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Von Oven will be with Mrs. Von Oven's uncle, Will Beals, who has recently come to Glendale from Ionia, Mich., and bought property on Mariposa Street. He is connected with the Pere Marquette Railroad, being one of its oldest employees. He will return to Michigan in the spring and make arrangements to return to Glendale in the fall to remain permanently.

INTERMEDIATE C. E. RALLY

The Intermediate Christian Endeavorers of the Glendale district held their annual rally Saturday evening, in Central Christian church. Members were present from First Presbyterian and Tropic Presbyterian, Congregational, Baptist, Lutheran, Central Christian and Eagle Rock Presbyterian churches. Ray Horton of Los Angeles, state superintendent of Intermediate Endeavorers, Miss Hazel Rice of Fresno, assistant superintendent, and Mrs. Wm. Walberg, county president, were present and made addresses, in which plans for the coming year's work were outlined. At the close of the business meeting, all repaired to the church bungalow, where there were games and refreshments. The Eagle Rock Presbyterian society had the largest delegation present but Central Christian showed the largest per cent of its enrollment on hand so was awarded the banner.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS PICNIC

Students in the class which will be graduated from the Intermediate at the close of the mid-year term, are enjoying a picnic at Ocean Park, going by the Wilson Bus Line. Miss Midealf, their class teacher, and several other teachers, will accompany them. There are about thirty-seven in the class which has been growing ever since the fall term opened by the accession of students who have become residents of Glendale. Two have been added within the past two weeks.

FINE HOME FOR ARTHUR SMITH

Arthur D. Smith, who has been living in rented houses in Glendale for some time past, has definitely decided on this city as the most desirable for residence purposes, so has let the contract for a costly six-room residence with many unique features to be erected on Jackson street, just south of Doran. It is across the street from the new home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Lamont.

STURTEVANT-PHILLIPS

ELIZABETH M. PHILLIPS AND SABIN B. STURTEVANT MAR- RIED AT OXNARD

Glendale people will be greatly interested in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth M. Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Phillips, (former residents of this city), to Sabin B. Sturtevant, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sturtevant of Edgely Drive, Los Angeles. Last Wednesday, January 21st, the young people motored to Oxnard, where they were married at All Saints' Church by Rev. Thomas B. Swift. Mr. Sturtevant is a salesman for John Wigmore & Sons, and the bride has for some time been a member of the Staff of the Southern Branch of the University of California. Mr. and Mrs. Sturtevant will be at home to their many friends after February 1st, at 1033 Cole Avenue, Los Angeles.

LOCK DOORS AND WINDOWS SECURELY

There has been considerable said about the city of Glendale not being properly policed to protect the homes from petty thieving. The Evening News has been giving consideration to the various statements in the way of fault-finding that have come to our notice in the past few weeks and we have come to the conclusion that the fault is not in the lack of police protection but is more on account of the laxness on the part of the people in properly safeguarding their homes when absent from them.

The recent burglary case that occurred at the Bennett home by young Tipton has brought to light facts that are worth knowing by the public. Upon being questioned by Judge Lowe the boy concerned in this case admitted that he had committed burglary at five different homes in Glendale; the first instance when he went to see a neighbor boy and found no one at home, and the door unlocked. Upon entering the house he had no intention of stealing anything but saw a watch in plain view on the table, so the temptation of taking the watch came to him and he carried it away. This easy method of entering this home suggested to him that he might be able to enter other homes as easily so he began experimenting. He visited other houses when the occupants were not in. At one place he found the key in the back door, at other places the doors were locked but he found the keys in convenient places and at one place the door was locked but the windows were unfastened.

The carelessness of the occupants of these various houses that were entered by this boy was in part responsible for the thefts committed. Had the doors and windows all been securely fastened when the people were away from home the boy would have failed to carry out his burglaries and in the meantime a turning point in his life might have come when he would have become sufficiently strong to have no desire to take that which does not belong to him.

It should be the plan of every owner of a residence in Glendale to see that no money or valuables are left in insecure places in the home. If there is not a place of security in the way of a vault or safe in the home in which valuables may be kept they should be sent to one of the local banks, which institutions have ample provisions for the safe-keeping of all valuable papers, jewelry and money.

What would we think of the carelessness of a bank that would leave its money on the counter over night and not give it the protection of placing it in a burglar-proof vault? The truth is the public would not do business with a bank that would be so grossly careless. It is the duty of every citizen to put temptation to his fellow man out of the way so far as possible; especially is this true in the case of young people whose conception of right and wrong is not as clear as it might be.

When leaving your home if only for a few minutes, see to it that the doors and windows are securely locked and that all temptation is removed from the covetous person.

The above discussion is not for the purpose of making an apology for the carelessness of police officers, or is it to encourage boys to commit thefts as has been quite common in Glendale the past few years. The Evening News entirely agrees with persons offering criticisms as to the need of better police protection but is of the opinion that if the police department were bring prominently before the people the importance of securely locking doors and fastening windows before they leave their homes it would be a safeguard for their property.

A further duty of the police department should be to urge that boys so far as possible be kept under the jurisdiction of their parents and their absence from home should only be by permission of the parents. This practice of allowing boys to run at large upon the streets from dark until ten or eleven o'clock at night is one that is apt to lead to many boys going astray. It should be the duty of all citizens of Glendale to work together in reducing the number of cases of theft committed by boys who have grown up with an incorrect conception of what it is to be a good citizen. It is the wayward boy who needs the attention. Churches, schools, boy scout organizations and Y. M. C. A. fail to perform their mission if they are not able to grasp from temptation the boy who does not belong to any one of these organizations.

ONE OF THE GREATEST NEEDS

Suggestion is often a more powerful influence than direct pressure. No one can tell how many boys and girls are led astray by improper juvenile stories or by pictures of crime. Only too frequent is the case of some boy or girl who is caught stealing and who was led by story or picture to believe it was the smart and easy way to get along.

We are living in an age of excitement and extravagance. The old standards are shown scant regard. Everybody is ready to take a fling at the Sabbath and the Ten Commandments. In the press and on the street corners old-fogy ideas of virtue and modesty and morality are ridiculed. This is the day of the cabaret, the girl with the cigarette, the rush to have a good time, the neglect of the home and its steady influence upon the life of youth.

People turn over to state and school the moral training which can only be given by church and home. A revival of the old-fashioned virtues of the Christian household, with the Bible on the parlor table and the family pew well filled on Sunday, is one of the greatest needs of our day.—Leslie's Weekly.

LODGE GIVES ULTIMATUM

STANDS FIRM ON RESERVATIONS COVERING ARTICLE 10 AND MONROE DOCTRINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Senator Lodge at a brief meeting of the bipartisan conference, flatly told the democrats he would not resume negotiations for a compromise unless there is a definite understanding that no change will be made in his reservations on Article 10 and the Monroe Doctrine.

MISS MORRISSEY WAS NOT ALWAYS A SINGER, SHE SAYS

Miss Marie Morrissey, whose concert on Tuesday at Keller's auditorium, promises to be one of the most delightful of the season, insists that her voice was not always received with the same favor as it is today.

It seems that Miss Morrissey has always been determined to sing. And when she was a little girl, she used to lift up her voice and carol loudly for the edification of herself and all the neighbors.

One day, the policeman on the beat passed Miss Morrissey's house, and hearing strange sounds issuing forth, he finally concluded to investigate.

He was a good policeman, was Pat, and he took an interest in all the affairs of the street. So he presented himself before Miss Morrissey's mother.

"Madame," said he, "is that your child?" Miss Morrissey ceased her singing long enough to hear her mother admit the relationship.

"Well, madam," said Pat, "what in the world is the matter with her to make her cry all the time?"

"I don't believe they will ever make Europe bone dry."

"I don't either," rejoined Uncle Bill Bottletop. "But Europe is a long ways to travel just for a drink."

Mrs. Blaikie and children of 232 North Kenwood expect to move the present week to Fresno to join Mr. Blaikie, who is already there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bradbury, formerly of West Colorado, have purchased and have taken possession of a bungalow at 425 Palm Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klein and daughter of Pasadena were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Daniels of 142 North Central Avenue.

Dr. Anderson and wife of Fort Scott, Kansas, are visiting old friends in Glendale, Wm. Hedges and wife of 121 East Park Ave., and think very strongly of locating in Glendale.

Edgar H. Fry, who is to help in the ocean-to-ocean Y. M. C. A. drive, has been assigned to the San Pedro territory. The quota for Los Angeles is fixed at $750,000.

Attorney and Mrs. W. E. Evans entertained at dinner Friday evening and for the night Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mattoon of Hollywood who were their guests at the Knights Templar hall.

Miss Laura Roberts, Miss Leone Shattuck and Messrs. Emil and Frank Kiefer were Sunday guests of Mrs. Richard Roberts at Hermosa Beach, where she is spending a few weeks at her beach cottage.

Miss Esther Schremp, who was graduated from the normal department of the Junior College, U. of C. in December, is enjoying home life. She spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week with friends in Orange.

Mrs. Buchanan, mother of Mrs. Herman Paine of 339 North Maryland Avenue, has been confined to her bed by illness, but is improving and hopes to be in normal health very soon.

Herbert Smith and wife of Stewart, Iowa, are here to spend the winter with their son, Delos H. Smith of the Bank of Glendale. They are enjoying the scenic beauties of Glendale and are being taken on trips to points of interest by their son.

Billy Pigg, while riding his bicycle north on Central avenue one day last week crashed head on into a rapidly driven auto. His bike was smashed and he was thrown on to the fender and thence to the pavement, where he landed on his feet. Quite a gash was cut in one leg below the knee and he was laid up for a day or two.

Harry D. Cross of 329 Mira Loma, International Scout Commander, has gone to New York City to help in the preliminary work for the Scout drive soon to be inaugurated for $1,000,000. He expects to visit and speak in every large city in the United States during the campaign. His little daughter, Katherine, who was so very ill is slowly improving.

Mrs. Margaret Ranger, who conducted the Schilling Dry Goods store in this city before it was purchased by Mr. Webb, is now representing the Butterick Pattern Company as a demonstrator and will be in Los Angeles for several weeks at the stores which handle those patterns. For several months she was in the Imperial Valley and was one of the victims of influenza in its most severe form.

Miss Blanch Cramer of Acacia Avenue who accompanied her sister, Mrs. Biddle, when she returned to her home in Maricopa after spending the holidays here, is still there, but is expected home within a short time. Earl Cramer, who is in Bakersfield, and his brothers, Wallace and Paul, are urging Mrs. Cramer to join them in the north, and she is thinking seriously of doing so if she can make satisfactory disposition of her property here.

Sixth grade boys of the Broadway School enjoyed a hike last week with Mr. Ross, director of nature study for the city schools.

Ben Bolen and wife of 369 Myrtle were both confined at home part of last week with attacks of la grippe. They are able to be up and at work but their daughter, Beatrice, was taken seriously ill with the same malady on Friday. She is improving slowly though still bedfast.

In honor of little Miss Harriet Jeter, a sixth grade pupil of the Broadway School, who has moved with her parents to Eagle Rock, a party was given at the home of Mrs. William Kulp at 1211 East Wilson Avenue, which was attended by the girls of the sixth grade. Harriet is dearly beloved by her teachers as well as her schoolmates, and all her friends are sorry to lose her.

Mrs. Hallie Gould of Agate, Colorado, in remitting her subscription writes that the paper is doubly interesting to her since her visit to Glendale last summer, where she was a guest of her mother, Mrs. H. L. Brown on San Rafael Avenue. Mrs. Brown is begging her daughter and husband to sell out and come to Glendale, and Mrs. Gould says they will surely do so as soon as circumstances permit.

Alfred Cookman, son of Rev. and Mrs. William Cookman of this city, who has been an instructor in the Department of Science in the Santa Monica City Schools, has just been promoted to the position of supervisor of agriculture in the city schools there. It is an appointment which came to him by the joint vote of the city and school trustees and which was made on the recommendation of Dr. Stebbins of the Bureau of Agricultural Education at Washington. Mr. Cookman is an enthusiast and will doubtless inspire enthusiasm in his pupils.

BRUTAL EXHIBITION OF CRUELTY

Dr. A. M. Duncan of this city witnessed on Saturday morning at 9:30 a flagrant case of cruelty to an animal on the part of a resident of this city. The victim was a half-grown Collie dog which, the doctor surmised, had followed the auto in which his master and mistress were riding, against their commands, and the man allowed his temper to get the best of him, giving a brutal exhibition of inhumanity. The doctor's communication reads as follows:

"The man, rather large, smooth-faced and apparently about forty, was driving south on Brand Boulevard near Doran Street in a touring car with a woman.

"When first observed the man had stopped his car and had caught the dog by the neck, then lifting it high flung its body and hind quarters onto the hard pavement. This he repeated one or more times, then, still holding the dog, kicked it several times, dashed it to the street again and finally slung it to the side of the roadway. The man then went to crank his car—not a Ford. The woman's face appeared to be tear-stained. The dog staggered on three legs, the other hanging limp, and looked toward the man."

A. M. Duncan.

INFORMAL DANCING PARTY

Miss Harriet Cook and Miss Anna May Flowers entertained informally with dancing, music and games a group of friends at the home of Miss Flowers on East Elk Avenue Saturday evening. Their guest list included Misses Lucy Strothers, Agnes Carroll, Martha Meyer, and Jessie Dutton, and Messrs. Langley Meredith, Victor Colburn, David Lynn, Paul Haig and Sam Thompson. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

NUTTY PARTY

Members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Church enjoyed a party Saturday evening at the home of Eunice and Dorothy Peart at 111 East Elk Avenue. It was designated as a "nutty party," and guests came in costume, made according to their own interpretations of "nutty." Some were garbed to resemble genuine nuts and others "mental nuts," but they harmonized and spent a very pleasant evening entertained with music and games, under direction of Miss Lois Murphy. About thirty-five were present.

THE WILLIAMSONS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Williamson were host and hostess Saturday evening at a beautifully appointed dinner served at their new Colonial bungalow home at 427 West Colorado Street, at which covers were laid for five Los Angeles friends, viz., Robert W. Steele of the Southern California Automobile Club and wife, Stanley E. Steele, head of the service department of the Jordan Auto Company, and wife; Miss F. G. Sieple of the Hammond Lumber Company. The dinner was followed by a delightful evening of music and dancing during which clever readings were given by Mrs. Robert W. Steele, in whose honor the dinner was given.

CONDITIONS IN INDIA

MR. AND MRS. M. D. WOOD, MISSIONARIES OF FAR EAST, TELL OF SITUATION

With England sending troops to the Caucasus to prevent the spread of Bolshevism into the far east, the opinions of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Wood, missionaries from India who are now guests at the Glendale Sanatorium, are of interest. Mr. Wood has been in India for twenty-seven years and his wife, who is a medical missionary, for twenty-one years. Her work has been among the poor and has especially concerned the training of native nurses and "compounders" or druggists. She and her husband are at the head of a dispensary and hospital at which an average of 60 to 80 cases a day are treated, the average for the year amounting to 21,000. They were in that field when the influenza epidemic raged and when one-third of the Bombay presidency, or district, died of the disease. It took the pneumonic form and thousands perished without having received any attention and had to be buried where they died. The people had so little vitality and living conditions were so unfavorable that they were an easy prey to the disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood say that in the cities where education and culture are available fine classes of people have developed who are eager for the uplift of their country and desirous of self-determination. They do not wish separation from the British empire, but they are asking for a measure of local independence such as Canada enjoys. These people acclaim President Wilson as the most wonderful man of his time and quote his words as those of Washington and Lincoln are quoted. They have confidently depended upon him to see that the fourteen points are carried out in the League of Nations and have appealed to him personally to aid them in obtaining the political goal they are seeking by his intercession with Great Britain—in other words, they have made him their attorney at the peace table. Mrs. Wood declared that were President Wilson to visit India he would be worshipped almost as a god. At the same time, these enlightened East Indians are keeping close track of the discussions in the congress of the United States and approve the contentions of the reservationists as an effort to make the League of Nations realize the things it is supposed to stand for. In support of these statements, Mr. Wood in the course of an interview read from one of the native papers he has recently received, extracts showing how closely they are following the political trend in the United States. These are long for a system of compulsory education, but the masses in the country districts know nothing about schools and are practically just where they were hundreds and thousands of years ago. When sick they still try to "cast out devils" by the beating of drums and other methods, and the only way they can be raised up is through the establishment of dispensaries and schools. Their mentality is at as low an ebb as is their physical vitality, and for that reason, Mr. and Mrs. Wood say they would fall an easy prey to Bolshevism. "Should the Bolsheviks ever get across, the government of India might be overturned and a reign of anarchy result. But for the strong arm of the British government, the lives of missionaries would be unsafe, they say. The enlightened natives also recognize their dependence upon Great Britain, and as stated, have no desire to lose its protection though they desire Colonial independence.

SINGLE TAX GAME

The fourth home single tax meeting in the Glendale series occurred last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Noah Hammond, 361 West Colorado Boulevard. Quite a new group of those who were strangers to each other were present. After a few words explaining the magnitude of the single tax campaign, Mrs. L. I. Robinson led the new game. It was interesting to see how much more the guests knew about the single tax than they thought, as the answers proceeded from obvious facts to unavoidable conclusions: That the reason owners of so many vacant lots in Glendale, unsightly with weeds and rubbish can afford to keep them vacant is because the taxes are so low as to encourage holding them out of use for a rise; that without doing a lick of work on them they expect from 50 to 100 per cent profit on their cost; that this accruing value to vacant lots is not earned by those of us getting the rake off, but is created by the presence and industry of all the people of Glendale collectively and should be called in by means of taxation to the public treasury to pay city expenses, then all taxing of homes, buildings and personal property would be needless; that under single tax cities would wear their vacant lots on their outskirts to be farmed until needed. An hour of sociability followed.

An unexpected guest, Mr. Emil F. Knips, recently from Minneapolis, but now of Van Nuys, an old friend of the movement, gave on invitation, a very interesting talk.

Mrs. B. Phillips, Mrs. John Paul, Miss Katherine Fisher, Miss M. Hal-lower were among those giving the best answers to their questions.

PLAIN AS DAY

"The words 'I don't know,' are rapidly disappearing from the lexicon of the American boy," remarked a pedagogue at a recent teachers' meeting. "Only the other day I chanced on a pair of urchins gravely regarding a dentist's sign which read facetiously 'I. X. Tractem, Painless Dentist. Nitrous Oxide.' "Said one boy, 'What does that sign 'Nitrous Oxide' mean?' "Gosh, don't you know nothing?" retorted the unabashed comrade. "It's Latin for 'Open All Night!'"

QUADRENNIAL SESSION

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS WILL HOLD SESSION PACIFIC UNION CONFERENCE IN GLENDALE

Members of the committee on plans and program for the quadrennial session of the Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists have definitely decided upon Glendale as the place for holding this important meeting, the date being February 13 to 22. Both Glendale and Sacramento were under consideration. It is expected that the new Seventh-day Adventist church at Isabel and California streets will be finished within the next few weeks. There the convention will be held. Among the important items of business to be considered are the election of officers to serve the next four years, the selection of departmental leaders, the rendering of reports of denominational work for the last quadrennial period, and the laying of plans for advancement.

Practically all the ministers and leading churchmen of the Seventh-day Adventists from the states of California, Arizona, Nevada and Utah, numbering more than 300, will attend the meeting, besides the denominational leaders from the world headquarters at Washington, D. C. Word has just been received that Elder Arthur G. Daniells, of Washington, D. C., president of the General or World Conference, will be here, also Elder Walter T. Knox, treasurer of the General Conference; Elder Elmer E. Andross, vice-president of the General Conference, and formerly located at Glendale as president of the Pacific Union Conference; Elder Roland D. Quinn, of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of the evangelistic department of the General Conference; and Louis A. Hansen, assistant executive secretary of the medical missionary department of the General Conference.

From the Pacific Press Publishing Association, at Mountain View, Cal., the largest denominational publishing plant in the west, will be present C. H. Jones, the manager; Asa O. Tait, editor of the "Signs of the Times," a denominational periodical of wide circulation throughout the United States and Canada; Herbert G. Childs, secretary and treasurer; James Cochran, manager periodical department; and Joseph M. Rowse, manager Pacific Coast branch. Dr. Newton Evans of Loma Linda, Cal., president of the Loma Linda College of Medical Evangelists, and Dr. Percy T. Magan, in charge of the White Memorial Hospital, at Los Angeles, also will attend.

Pacific Union College, a large Adventist educational institution at St. Helena, Cal., will be represented by Prof. C. Walter Irwin, president, and Claude Conard, manager. Prof. Robert A. Hare, principal of Lodi Academy, Lodi, Cal., will attend, also Prof. A. Earl Hall, principal of San Fernando Academy, San Fernando, Cal. The St. Helena Sanitarium, St. Helena, Cal., Glendale Sanitarium, and Paradise Valley Sanitarium, National City, Cal., will be well represented by Mr. C. E. Rice, manager of the St. Helena institution, C. E. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale Sanitarium, and Elder J. A. Burden, manager of the National City Sanitarium. Others from these places also will attend.

Elders John W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference, J. Lemar McElhany, of Riverside, president of the Southeastern California Conference and Milton M. Hare, of Los Angeles, president of the Southern California Conference, were appointed a committee to outline suggestive topics for consideration in addition to the regular business. Church discipline and examination of candidates for baptism probably will be among these topics.

The evening sessions will doubtless be devoted to lectures on foreign missions and kindred topics. Careful consideration will be given to the duty of Seventh-day Adventists to carry the gospel of Christ to the entire world in this generation.

MORE CHICKEN!

Little Henry's mother announced that fried chicken would be the principal feature of his New Year's dinner, and Henry, who could eat fried chicken until the doctor came with a cure for stomach ache, sat in the kitchen watching his mother prepare the banquet. She was boiling a dozen eggs, preparatory to deviling them, and Henry watched her put them in a bowl on the window ledge. His face was several miles long.

"What's the matter?" queried his mother.

"Oh, nuthin! Only I was wonderin' if we ain't going to have some more parts of that fried chicken besides his eggs."

rior, children of East India, Japan, Siam, and Chinese children who, Miss Field declared have three names in succession, first what is termed their "milk name," then their school name, and finally official name. Cuban children were shown and the thatched houses in which they live, Arabian children and the traveling houses borne on the backs of camels in which they some times dwell. There were pictures of Chinese boys in skirted garments playing horse astride sticks with a sober joy which made them quite akin to American lads, and another picture of a group of Chinese children playing a game they called "hawk and chickens," which much resembles our "snap the whip." An interesting group of Korean children was shown watching a kite flying, a sport at which they are expert, and in which one flyer tries to entangle and saw in two the string of a rival kite flyer. It is quite a triumph when they accomplish this. It is usually done by smearing the kite string with a paste containing pounded glass which of course gives cutting power. The last scene was a beautiful view of the Pacific Ocean with the prophecy that some of the boys and girls of Glendale would cross it to do mission work in eastern lands.

The morning service was a communion at which a large number of persons were received into the church by letter and confession of faith. Rev. Theodore Hopping assisted Pastor Edmonds in this service, and fine music was provided by the choir and the soloist, Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts, who sang "The Publican."

CARING FOR BRITISH SOLDIERS

For the British officers and men who are to be kept in the field until peace negotiations are concluded the government is planning an educational service corps to give them quick and intensive special training to fit them for civilian employment. Courses of instruction will cover industrial and commercial organization, banking, insurance and accounting. A correspondence bureau will form part of the scheme, although most of the work of instruction will be done by a staff of lecturers.

RAILROADING

Clyde Foster, a south side youngster, has been much impressed recently by warnings about the care of his health so that he would not "catch" the influenza and die and be taken to the cemetery. His father is a railroad man, and when Santa Claus came around Clyde received a fine choo-choo train. He was proudly exhibiting it to some neighbors, who asked how much it cost to ride on his train.

"Three dollars," he said.
"Where can you go for $3?" one asked.
"Crown Hill," Clyde promptly answered.—Indianapolis News.

TOO MUCH ARITHMETIC

"Got any three-cent stamps?"
"No," the clerk replied, "we're all out of threes."

"Dat's too bad," said Uncle Mose, "cause dis letter ought to go out to-night."

"We have plenty of twos."

"But dis letter goes out of town."

"And we have plenty of ones."

"But one won't take it."

"Couldn't you put on a two and a one?"

"Huh?"

"Or three ones?"

As the old dorky ambled toward the door he scratched his head and answered:

"Maybe I could; maybe I could; but I ain't got no time to be foolin' roun' trying to add up."—Youngstown Telegram.

CONFESSION OF AN AVIATOR

For myself, there is nowhere and nobody I would rather be at present than here and a pilot. No man in his senses could say he enjoyed the war, but as it must be fought out I would rather be in aviation than any other branch. A pleasant life, good food, good sleep and two to four hours a day in the air. After four hours (in two spells) over the lines, constantly alert and craning to dodge scandalously accurate shells and suddenly appearing Boches, panting in the thin air at 20,000 feet, the boys are, I think, justified calling it a day. I have noticed that the coolest men are a good bit let down after a dogged machine fight far up in the rarefied fair. It may seem soft to an infantryman—twenty hours of sleep, eating and loafing—but in reality the airman should be given an easy time outside of flying.—From the Atlantic.
